Tell What Happened During a Service Problem

Narrate | PPF | Story Interview

Name: _____ Date: _____

SLIDE 02 Today's goal

By the end of this lesson, I can:

Tell a friend or a customer service officer what happened with a delivery, a booking or a refund: set the scene, give the events in order and say how it ended.

WHO You live in Johor Bahru. Two weeks ago you ordered a microwave online for RM349. It was supposed to come on Saturday morning, so you waited at home.

SITUATION The rider came at 4 p.m., while you were having a shower, so you signed quickly. The box had a kettle in it! You waited 25 minutes on hold. The right microwave came three days later, on Tuesday.

NEED It is Thursday lunch. Mei Ling asks, 'So what happened with your microwave?' She was not there, so she needs the story in order. The shop promised you a RM30 voucher, but it has not come yet.

GOAL Tell the story so Mei Ling can follow it: set the scene → what happened, in order → how it ended → what you will do next time, and what is still open.

SLIDE 03 Try it first

Mei Ling asks: “Hey, you ordered a microwave online, right? Did it come in the end? What happened?” Say something for 30 seconds. Then note what you said.

SLIDE 04 A good message

Siti's answer. Mark where each part starts.

Two weeks ago I ordered a microwave online, RM349, for Saturday morning. I was having a shower at home when the rider finally came at 4 p.m. And in the box? A kettle! Then I called them and waited 25 minutes on hold. In the end, the right one came three days later, on Tuesday, and now it works fine. Next time, I'm going to open the box before the rider leaves. It only takes a minute, and he can take a wrong item back at once. One thing is still open: they promised me a RM30 voucher, but it hasn't come yet. If it isn't here by Friday, I'll call them again.

P PAST · THE SCENE AND WHAT HAPPENED

P PRESENT · HOW IT ENDED, AND NOW

F FUTURE · NEXT TIME

! STILL OPEN

SLIDE 05 Organise it

Kumar tells Ali about his car service. Scene and what happened → how it ended → next time → still open.

- [ ] One thing is still open: I still don't know what happened to my booking.
- [ ] They made me wait an hour and a half. In the end, they did it at 3.30, and now the car is fine.
- [ ] Next time, I'll call them the day before and check the booking.
- [ ] Last Monday I took half a day off for my car service at 2 p.m. When I got to the workshop, my booking wasn't there.

Write the letter: P = Past · the scene and what happened · P = Present · how it ended, and now · F = Future · next time · ! = Still open

Story Interview

The speaker tells a service story from a mixed-up card. The listener cannot see the card: they write the story in order, ask for what is missing and read it back.

1. Round 1 (3:00). Speaker: your card is mixed up. Tell it in order: scene → what happened → how it ended → next time.
2. Listener: no card. Write key words, number the events. Round 1: ask 'When was this?' 'What next?' Read it back.
3. Round 2 (2:00): listeners move one seat. Speaker: the whole story, shorter. Listener: write, then ask. Next column.
4. Round 3 (2:00), frames closed: speakers close the plan, keep only the card. New listener. Then swap: rounds 1–3.

Card 1 · Internet at the new condo

Card 2 · Lunch for a customer meeting

Card 3 · The birthday cake

Card 4 · The flight refund

SLIDE 13 Transfer

At work: last Wednesday a courier left the office's 10 boxes of printing paper on the wrong floor. You looked for them for two days. On Friday you found them on the 3rd floor, and Ali helped you carry them up. Tell Mr. Tan what happened: scene → what happened, in order → how it ended → next time (your own idea). Or tell a real story from your own work.
