Catch Up With Someone You Haven't Seen for a Long Time

Narrate | PPF | Experience Sharing

Name: _____ Date: _____

SLIDE 02 Today's goal

By the end of this lesson, I can:

Catch up with someone you have not seen for years: tell two or three things that happened, what you do now and what is next, then ask about their news.

WHO	Three years ago you and Amy worked in the same office. Then she left to become a coach, and you have not seen each other since.
SITUATION	Saturday night, a wedding dinner at a Chinese restaurant in JB. Amy is at your table. Before the food comes, she says: “Long time no see! It’s been three years. So, what’s new?”
NEED	Amy wants the main news, not every detail: two or three things that happened, what you do now and what you are planning. She wants to tell you her news too.
GOAL	Tell your news in order (then → now → next), with two or three highlights, and ask her back, so it is a conversation, not a speech.

SLIDE 03 Try it first

Amy asks: “Hey! Long time no see! It’s been three years. So, what’s new with you?” Say something for 30 seconds. Then note what you said.

SLIDE 04 A good message

Siti's answer. Mark where each part starts.

When we last met, four years ago, I was still working at the travel agency in town. Then in 2023, I joined a small company, and last year I got married! These days, I'm in HR there. We're only twelve people, so I know everyone, and so far I've really enjoyed it. Next year, we're going to buy our own place, probably a small condo in Tebrau, near my husband's parents. But enough about me! What about you? Are you still at the travel agency these days?

P THEN · SINCE WE LAST MET

P NOW · THESE DAYS

_____

F NEXT · THE PLAN

! ASK THEM BACK

SLIDE 05 Organise it

Mei Ling meets an old neighbour at the mall after five years: then → now → next → ask back.

- ☐ Next year, I'm going to start a diploma in accounting. It takes two years.
- ☐ These days, I'm an accounts assistant in JB, and I check about 200 invoices a month.
- ☐ Anyway, that's me. What about you? Is your family still in Skudai these days?
- ☐ Five years ago, when we were neighbours in Skudai, I was still working at a hardware shop. After that, I took a night course.

Write the letter: P = Then · since we last met · P = Now · these days · F = Next · the plan · ! = Ask them back

SLIDE 09 Setting the scene: was / were + -ing

To say what your life was like when you last met, use was / were + -ing (add still). For the things that happened after that, use the past simple with a time.

When we last met, I was still working at the travel agency.

Five years ago, we were living next door in Skudai.

Then in 2023, I joined a small company.

Are you still working there these days?

Experience Sharing

Two old friends catch up. Each tells two or three things in order, now and next, then asks back: from a card first, then their own news. The listener cannot see the card and fills the catch-up note.

1. Quiet time (2:00): read your card. Choose two or three things that happened. Plan: then → now → next → ask back.
2. Round 1 (3:00 each), your card: tell, then ask back. Partner writes the note, reads it back: 'First you …, then …'.
3. Line B moves one seat. Round 2 (2:00 each): same card, new partner, shorter: only two things, now, next, ask back.
4. Line B moves. Round 3 (1:00 each), frames closed, workbook turned over: your own real news (or your card again).

Card 1 · Old colleague from the hotel

Card 2 · Old friend from badminton

Card 3 · Old colleague from the factory

Card 4 · Old classmate from secondary school

Catch-up note

My partner's question or concern, and what I answered:

SLIDE 12 Respond

Amy asks. Write a short answer to one of these.

1. Oh, when did that happen?
2. And what is that like these days?
3. So when does that start?

Start with: It was about … ago. / In …, I … · It's good. These days, I … · Next …, I'm going to …

SLIDE 13 Transfer

Kumar is back in the office after four months at a customer's factory in Melaka. At lunch he asks you: 'So, what's new with you?' Tell him two things that happened at work, what you are doing now and what is next. Then ask about him. No news? Use these: two months ago, Ali changed all the office computers · last month, a new colleague joined your team · now: you are training her · next month: the annual dinner.

After you left, I … · These days, I'm … · Next month, I'm going to … · And what about you? How was Melaka?

SLIDE 14 Did I do it?

Be honest. Tick what you did in the task.

- [ ] Tells two or three things that happened, in order, each with a time word.
- [ ] Says what they do now and what they plan next.
- [ ] Asks the other person back about their news.
