Tell Where Things Stand with a Request You Made

Narrate | PPF | Story Interview

Name: _____ Date: _____

SLIDE 02 Today's goal

By the end of this lesson, I can:

Tell someone where a request you made stands: what you asked for, where it is now, what you are waiting for, and what you will do if nothing happens.

WHO You look after small jobs in the office. Two weeks ago, on a Monday, the air-con in the meeting room started leaking, and that afternoon you reported it to the management office.

SITUATION A technician came last Thursday and said it needs a new part. The office says the part will arrive on Wednesday, and he will fix it on Friday morning. Until then, someone empties a bucket twice a day.

NEED It is Monday. Mr. Tan has a client meeting in that room on Tuesday next week. He asks: where are we with the air-con? Nobody has told you what time on Friday yet.

GOAL Tell him where things stand (Past → Present → Future → still open), then answer his question: "So what will you do?"

SLIDE 03 Try it first

Mr. Tan asks: “Morning. Where are we with the meeting-room air-con? Is it fixed yet?” Say something for 30 seconds. Then note what you said.

SLIDE 04 A good message

Siti's answer. Mark where each part starts.

Two weeks ago, on Monday, I was setting up the meeting room when water started dripping from the air-con. That afternoon, I reported it to the management office. So far, they've sent a technician once. He said it needs a new part. Right now, we're waiting for that part, and we empty a bucket twice a day. The office says the part will arrive on Wednesday, and the technician is coming on Friday morning. So it should be ready for your client meeting on Tuesday next week. One thing is still open: nobody has told me what time on Friday yet. If I don't hear from them by Wednesday afternoon, I'll call and ask.

P PAST · WHAT I ASKED FOR

P PRESENT · WHERE IT IS NOW

F FUTURE · WHAT I'M WAITING FOR

! STILL OPEN · MY NEXT STEP

SLIDE 05 Organise it

Ali tells Mr. Tan where things stand with the broken printer: asked → now → waiting for → next step.

- [ ] Until then, we're using the small printer. If it isn't back by Monday afternoon, I'll call them on Tuesday morning.
- [ ] So far, they've collected it. Right now, it's at their workshop in Skudai.
- [ ] They said it will come back next Monday, and the repair is free.
- [ ] Last Tuesday, I asked the supplier to repair our big printer, because it's still under warranty.

Write the letter: P = Past · what I asked for · P = Present · where it is now · F = Future · what I'm waiting for · ! = Still open · my next step

Story Interview

The speaker tells where a request stands from a mixed-up card. The listener cannot see the card: they fill in the note, ask for what is missing, and say: wait or chase them?

1. Round 1 (3:00). Speaker: your card is mixed up. Tell it in order, about one minute. Listener: write, do not ask yet.
2. Listener: ask only for the empty lines, then say 'I'd wait' or 'I'd chase them' and why. Speaker: acknowledge, answer.
3. Round 2 (2:00): listeners move one seat. Same card to the new listener, shorter. Listeners use the next column.
4. Round 3 (1:00), new listener, frames closed: speakers keep only the card; listeners note the day and choice. Swap roles.

SLIDE 12 Respond

Mr. Tan asks. Write a short answer to one of these.

1. It's been two weeks. Shouldn't you call them today?
2. What if they don't fix it on Friday? My client meeting is on Tuesday next week.
3. Who is paying for the new part, us or the building?

Start with: I understand, but … · That's a fair point. If …, I'll … · Good question. I'll check and tell you by …

SLIDE 13 Transfer

Your sister asks about the washing machine. You sent it for repair under warranty 9 days ago; the shop said 'about two weeks'; so far you have had one message: 'waiting for a part'. (Or use a real repair or refund of your own.) Tell her what you did, where it is now, what you are waiting for, and what you will do if nothing happens.

Last week, I … · So far, they've … · They said it will … by … · If I don't hear by …, I'll …

SLIDE 14 Did I do it?

Be honest. Tick what you did in the task.

- [ ] Sets the scene: what they asked for, when, and who they asked.
- [ ] Says where it is now and what they are waiting for, with a day.
- [ ] Names their own next step with a day, and answers one question about it.
