SLIDE 02 Today's goal

By the end of this lesson, I can:

Give your opinion on working from home, support it with a reason and an example, and respond to a different view.

WHO You work in a small company in Johor Bahru.

SITUATION The company is deciding whether staff can work from home two days a week. Your colleague Kumar wants to know what people think before the meeting.

NEED Kumar asks for your opinion. He does not agree with everything you say.

GOAL Give a clear opinion, support it with one reason and one example, and respond to his different view.

SLIDE 03 Try it first

Kumar asks: "So, what do you think? Working from home, or coming to the office?" Say something for 30 seconds. Then note what you said.

SLIDE 04 A good message

Mei Ling's answer. Mark where each part starts.

Personally, I think working from home two days a week is a good idea. The main reason is that I can focus better without interruptions. For example, last month I finished the monthly report in one morning at home. In the office, it usually takes me two days. So overall, I'd prefer a mix of home and office.

OPINION AGAIN

SLIDE 05 Organise it

Ali gives Kumar a different view. Put his sentences in order: Opinion → Reason → Example → Opinion.

☐

In my opinion, the office is better for our team.

☐

This is because we solve problems faster face to face.

☐

That's why I'd rather come in most days.

☐

For instance, yesterday you and I fixed a customer problem in ten minutes at your desk.

Write the letter: O = Opinion · R = Reason · E = Example · O = Opinion again

SLIDE 06 Useful language

Tick the expressions you used today.

SLIDE 11 Opinion Exchange

Give your opinion and hear a different one. Both people speak, both people respond.

1. A gives an opinion with a reason and an example (OREO).
2. B listens, then asks one question or gives a different view.
3. A responds: acknowledge, then answer.
4. Swap roles. B gives an opinion on the next card.

Home or office?

Should staff work from home two days a week?

Meetings

Are online meetings as good as meetings in a room?

Working hours

Is a fixed 9-to-6 better than flexible hours?

Open office

Is an open office a good idea, or does everyone need a quiet space?

My partner's question or concern, and what I answered:

SLIDE 12 Respond

Kumar asks. Write a short answer to one of these.

1. I see, but isn't it lonely at home?
2. Some people say they work less at home. What do you think?
3. What about new staff? Can they learn from home?

Start with: I see your point, but ... · That's true. However, ... · I understand that, but for me ...

SLIDE 13 Transfer

A friend is thinking of moving to a smaller town to save money. What is your opinion? Give a reason and an example.

In my opinion, ... · The main reason is ... · For instance, ...
